The 1997 California Information Practices Act requires UC Davis to provide the following information to individuals asked to supply information about themselves: UC Davis is requesting this information to maintain accurate donor files in the Office of University Relations. Furnishing the information is strictly voluntary and will be maintained confidentially. The information may be used by other university departments in the regular course of business but will not be disseminated to others, except if required by law. You have the right to review your own data files. Inquiries should be forwarded to the Advancement Services Office, University of California, Davis, One Shields Avenue, Davis, CA 95616.

The UC Davis Foundation is a not for profit 501 (c)(3) public benefit corporation organized for the purpose of encouraging voluntary public support for the benefit of UC Davis, and is recognized under federal and state tax laws as a qualified donee for tax-deductible charitable contributions. Responsibility for governance of the foundation, including investments, is vested in its board of trustees, which is composed of community leaders and senior campus administrators.

It is the policy of the University of California, Davis and the UC Davis Foundation to utilize a portion of the gift principal and/or the short term investment income on current gifts and grants to support the cost of raising and administering gift funds.
